Length : 7 Days / 6 Nights

Departure : Realisation of the tour on request

Transport : On coach of tourism with local guide

Accommodation: Hotel in double base

Several thousand years in Algiers are reflected through the structures which reveal all strata of civilizations which followed one another. Algiers became for the first time the country's capital in 1529 according to our era and ever since it is playing an increasingly important role, until today.

Thus, since the earliest times to the post-colonial period, El-Djazair carries in it the remains of all those times that make of it one of the richest cities in the Mediterranean.

At 100 kilometers east of Algiers, Beni Yenni is distinguished by its majestic and hospitable mountains, its cool and energetic climate in winter and so also the scattered villages, in addition to authentic and original crafts. The city of Tizi Ouzou has a large capacity in tourism, natural archaeological and cultural resources. We go to the town of Tizirt situated in the ancient Phoenician city of Rusgunias and the Roman city of Iomnium.
